

The EAA to hold roving exhibitions at shopping arcades

(11 October 2012) In order to raise the public awareness of the Estate Agents Authority (EAA), to promote consumer information and to familiarise the public with estate agents' using saleable area in handling second-hand residential property transactions from next year, the EAA will launch roving exhibitions at shopping arcades this month.

Further to the roving exhibitions held in various districts this March and last year, new elements will be added to the exhibitions this month. There will be display panels introducing the EAA's milestones over the past 15 years and the key points on the requirements for estate agents providing saleable area information of second-hand residential properties to clients.

The exhibitions will be held at shopping arcades in Ap Lei Chau, Ma On Shan and Tseung Kwan O respectively. Pamphlets titled "Guide to Purchasing Properties" and "Notes on Signing a Tenancy Agreement" are also available at the exhibitions.

Schedule of the roving exhibitions:

Date	Shopping Arcade	Exhibition hours
