

Chief Executive Officer to leave EAA

(24 December 2013) The Estate Agents Authority (EAA) announces today that its current Chief Executive Officer, Mr Augustine NG Wah-keung, has, for personal reasons, tendered his resignation to the EAA Board and will leave the Authority in March 2014.

The EAA Chairman, Ms Vivien Chan, thanked Mr Ng for his contribution to the Authority over the past year.

The EAA will proceed with the recruitment process shortly for identifying a suitable successor to lead the EAA Administration.
