LICENSING REQUIREMENTS AND QUALIFYING EXAMINATIONS

1. The Licensing Regime

- 1.1 Since 1 January 1999, anyone carrying on estate agency work in Hong Kong must hold a valid licence, namely:
- (a) an estate agent's licence (individual) – the holder may perform estate agency work in the capacity of a sole proprietor or a partner of, or a director of a company engaging in an estate agency business, or a salesperson of another licensed estate agent; or
 - (b) a salesperson's licence – the holder may only perform estate agency work as a salesperson of a licensed estate agent.
- 1.2 The requirements for the grant of an estate agent's licence (individual) and a salesperson's licence are specified in the Estate Agents Ordinance (Cap. 511) and Estate Agents (Licensing) Regulation. Essentially, an applicant must:
- have completed a Form 5 educational level or its equivalent;
 - have attained the age of 18 years at the date of application;
 - have passed the relevant qualifying examination in the 12 months immediately prior to the application; and
 - be considered a fit and proper person to hold a licence.
- 1.3 Please refer to the aforementioned legislation or browse the Estate Agents Authority ("EAA") website (www.eaa.org.hk) for details. If you have any question about licensing requirements, call the EAA Enquiry Hotline at 2111 2777.

2. Introduction to the Examinations

- 2.1 There are two different Qualifying Examinations:
- (a) the Estate Agents Qualifying Examination ("EAQE")
 - (b) the Salespersons Qualifying Examination ("SQE")
- 2.2 A candidate who passes the EAQE may apply for either an estate agent's licence (individual) or a salesperson's licence. A candidate who passes the SQE may apply for a salesperson's licence only. Candidates who successfully passed the relevant examinations must submit their licence applications within 12 months of the date of issuance of the result slips; otherwise, results will be invalid for licensing purposes.
- 2.3 The EAA has appointed the Institute of Professional Education And Knowledge ("PEAK") of the Vocational Training Council ("VTC") to administer the Qualifying Examinations, which will be conducted by the PEAK Examination Centre ("PEAK Exam Centre") of the VTC. The EAQE is available in paper-based format only, whereas the SQE is available in both paper-based and computer-based formats. For details of the Qualifying Examinations in paper-based format, please refer to the

- 2.4 The examination dates and deadlines to register for the Qualifying Examinations may be found on the EAA website at www.eaa.org.hk.

PREPARATION

3. Syllabus

- 3.1 The examination syllabus for the computer-based SQE is the same as that of the paper-based SQE and is set out in Appendix 1 of this Examination Handbook.
- 3.2 To familiarise yourself with the format and the types of questions of the SQE, you may review the Sample Questions (in addition to those provided herein) for the qualifying examinations posted on the EAA website.

The EAA does not publish any study materials or organise any preparatory courses for the qualifying examinations. Some educational and training institutions, and some estate agencies, may offer various types of preparatory courses for the qualifying examinations. Anyone considering enrolling into these courses should note that the EAA does not give accreditation to any such courses nor to the providers of these courses. No representation whatsoever is therefore given by the EAA as to the quality of the courses or their providers, or as to whether the courses would enable a candidate to pass the relevant examination. Individuals should exercise due care when considering enrolling into these courses.

4. Format

- 4.1 Multiple-choice questions are used for both the computer-based and paper-based SQE. Candidates may choose to take the examination in either English or Chinese when they register for the examination.
- 4.2 Different versions of question papers containing questions of the same contents but in a different order will be used in each qualifying examination.
- 4.3 Both the computer-based and paper-based SQE contain two parts – Part I contains 40 standalone questions, whereas Part II contains 10 questions based on one or two land searches and/or case studies. The examination time is 2 hours 30 minutes.
- 4.4 To pass the SQE, candidates must pass both Part I and Part II. The pass mark is 60%¹.

Candidates of the SQE must therefore score at least 48 marks in Part I and 12 in Part II respectively in order to pass the SQE.

If mark penalty is imposed upon a candidate who contravenes the examination regulations, mark(s) will be deducted from his/her total score in the examination.

Hence, in order to pass the examination, such candidate must pass both Part I and Part II of the examination and also obtain a pass mark (i.e. 60%) in the overall result after deduction of mark(s).

4.5 The following are appended for reference:

- Appendix 2 : Sample questions and answers
- Appendix 3 : Sample screens of the computer-based examination

Candidates should also go through the “Demonstration of Computer-Based Examination” on the website of PEAK Exam Centre at www.vtc.edu.hk/cpdc.

Part II

CASE STUDY

Leasing of Property A

1. Teddy is the tenant of Flat A, 12th Floor, Fragrant Garden, 25 Sunflower Road, Hong Kong ("Property A"), and for years has been sharing it with his brother, Sales. The current 2-year tenancy agreement has a few more months to run. Sales graduated last month and now works as a salesperson for XYZ Estate Agency ("XYZ") which is located very near Property A.
2. Teddy has just found a new job in Macau and so will soon move over there. Knowing that with no proof of stable income the landlord will probably be reluctant to transfer the tenancy to Sales, Teddy agrees to continue to deal with the landlord as if he were to remain the tenant, so long as Sales continues to pay the rent and also a small amount of "tea money" to Teddy for all the trouble every month.

Listing of Property A

3. One day in April 2010, Mr. Au Tsz Bun ("Au") walked into XYZ and enquired with Sales the procedures for arranging the sale of his property with a sitting tenant. Sales immediately realised that Au is his landlord when Au gave him the address of Property A. Sales however did not tell Au he lives there. Sales suggested that if Au appointed XYZ as an exclusive agent for 6 months, XYZ will advertise Property A on the front page of Property Post, a popular weekly property magazine, for the whole period.

4. Au asked if the exclusive agency can be for a shorter period, and Sales told him that it has been XYZ's policy to require six months minimum for exclusive agency services. After some negotiation, Au agreed to appoint XYZ as exclusive agent for Property A for four months and as non-exclusive agent for the following two months. Sales started completing Form 1 and Form 3.
5. Au agreed to list Property A for $3 million, which was recorded in Form 3. Sales phoned Banker Q who gave a verbal valuation of $2.5 million only. Au said he would not sell Property A for anything less than $2.8 million. XYZ's computer record showed that in the past month two nearby comparable properties fetched $2.45 million and $2.5 million respectively, and Sales considered it a waste of valuable marketing resources to advertise Property A for $3 million.
6. Sales believed that for the best interest of Au it would be vital marketing strategy to get prospective purchasers to enquire of and take a look at Property A, and so he decided to advertise Property A with a "try price" of $2.4 million alongside a list price of $3 million in Property Post. The day after Property A was advertised Sales received an offer of $2.45 million from Client A. The following day Client B offered $2.5 million, and at the same time Client C informed Sales that he might make a higher offer the next day after checking valuation, and requested Sales not to present Au with offers from any clients until Client C made an offer.

Ownership of Property A

7. Au told Sales that though Property A has been in the joint names of himself and his wife, he is in fact the sole beneficial owner because all deposits and mortgage payments have been paid by him. Au also told Sales that his wife has agreed to sell Property A in exchange for him agreeing to a divorce; that she now lives somewhere in Mainland China and Au is doubtful if he can locate her to sign any documents to sell Property A.

8. As proof that all mortgage payments have been made by him, Au showed Sales his bank pass book and some recent mortgage repayment receipts. Au also produced a signed Declaration of Authority (Annex A) stating that Au would bear full responsibility for any problem that might arise from his wife, Chan Ngar Man (“Chan”) not signing the estate agency agreement and provisional agreement. Au assured Sales that the Declaration is a valid authorisation.
9. Annex B is a land search of Property A. Au told Sales there is no need to worry about the court order as his wife has no legal interest in Property A. Au showed Sales a letter from his solicitors to prove that he is the sole beneficial owner of Property A (Annex C).

List of Annexes:

- A: Declaration of Authority
- B: Land Search Record
- C: Letter from Tai Dai Wai & Co.

DECLARATION OF AUTHORITY

To: (estate agent/purchaser) _____

I declare and confirm that I have obtained the authority of Chan Ngar Man (joint owner of Flat A, 12th Floor, Fragrant Garden, 25 Sunflower Road, Hong Kong) to sign any [estate agency/provisional sale and purchase] agreement in respect of the above property on her behalf.

I warrant that I shall perform the terms of the agreement so signed and shall indemnify you against all damages and costs for anything arising from my signing the agreement on her behalf.

Dear Sirs,

Re: F.C.M.C.No. 4604 of 2009

We are in receipt of your letter of 20 January 2010, the assertions therein are denied absolutely. We are instructed that your client, Chan Ngar Man, has agreed not to ask for any maintenance costs should our client, Mr. Au Tsz Bun, expedite the divorce proceedings, which condition our client has indeed complied with.

Though your client has been named a joint owner of the property at Flat A, 12th Floor, Fragrant Garden, 25 Sunflower Road, Hong Kong, we are instructed our client is its sole beneficial owner as the deposit for the property purchase and all monthly mortgage repayments are paid by our client (see copies of payment receipts enclosed). Your client is therefore holding her share of the property, if any (which is denied), in trust for our client only.

We hereby demand you to cause the registration of the Notice of Application for Ancillary Relief to be vacated within 14 days of this letter. All our client's rights are hereby reserved.

Yours faithfully,

The following instructions must be carefully noted and observed in every detail.

A. Check your Admission Form

1. Check carefully that the information printed on your Admission Form, i.e. name (English and Chinese), Hong Kong Identity Card number/Passport number and question language, corresponds with that in the Entry Form. If you discover a discrepancy, make a written request to the PEAK Examination Centre, Vocational Training Council (“PEAK Exam Centre”) for amendment at least 1 week before the examination.
2. Take note of all details provided in your Admission Form before the examination to avoid missing the examination, or attending on the wrong date, at the wrong time, or at the wrong examination venue.

Note: Fees paid are not refundable or transferable save in exceptional circumstances and subject to the approval of the Estate Agents Authority (“EAA”).

B. General Instructions

1. Before the examination, ensure that you know the location of the examination venue. You may contact the PEAK Exam Centre (Tel. No.: 2919 1467/2919 1468/2919 1478) to enquire about the location of the examination venue. You must take the examination at the examination venue specified on your Admission Form. Candidates who go to the examination venue other than the one stated on the Admission Form may not be allowed to take the examination. Even if you are admitted to take the examination, 5 marks will be deducted.
2. Arrive at the examination venue 15 minutes before the commencement of the examination. The examination time is specified on your Admission Form. The PEAK Exam Centre or EAA will not be responsible for any delay arisen due to operational reasons, including system failure.
3. Bring your original and valid Hong Kong Identity Card/Passport (“identification document”) to the examination venue. Candidates should print their Admission Forms on a blank A4-sized white paper and bring it to the examination. The chief invigilator may refuse to admit a candidate who cannot show his/her Admission Form and his/her identification document.
4. No writing instruments will be provided in the examination venue. Candidates can bring pencils or pens for doing rough work during the examination.
5. You are not allowed to use any dictionary (including the “Glossary of Terms for the Estate Agency Industry” issued by the EAA) during the examination.
6. Do not place any kind of bag on your desk.
7. When you are admitted to the examination venue, occupy the seat assigned to you.
8. (a) If you arrive late but not more than 45 minutes after the designated start time of the examination as stated in the Admission Form, you will be admitted to the examination venue but no extra time will be given to you.
(b) You will not be admitted to the examination venue 45 minutes after the designated start time of the examination, unless the chief invigilator determines otherwise.
(c) Even if you are admitted to the examination venue 45 minutes after the designated start time of the examination, you will be disqualified from the examination and no mark for the examination will be given to you unless you satisfy the EAA that there are very exceptional circumstances justifying your lateness.
(d) You may not leave the examination venue during the first 90 minutes or during the last

30 minutes of the examination. If you wish to leave the examination venue during the permitted time, you should raise your hand to summon an invigilator. You may leave the examination venue with the approval of the invigilator.

9. Candidates are forbidden from switching on the monitor or any computer facilitates until they are instructed to do so by the chief invigilator.

You must put all your personal belongings in a bag. The bag must be properly closed and small enough to be placed under the chair or in an area assigned by the chief invigilator/invigilators before the examination begins. However, the PEAK Exam Centre will not be responsible for safekeeping your belongings. You will not be allowed to take out any materials from your bag during the examination. If unauthorised articles such as books, dictionaries, notes, papers or any kinds of electronic devices (e.g. calculators, tablets, PDA, mobile phones, Bluetooth headphones/headsets, pagers, MP3 players, camera devices/equipment, electronic dictionaries, scanner pens, databank watches, smart watches with mobile applications installed or wireless technologies supported and other electronic devices which can store and/or display texts) are found on/in your desk, on your body or in your pockets during the examination, you may be disqualified from the examination. If you bring a pencil box into the examination venue, you must place the contents on your desk and put the empty box under the chair.

11. Switch off all mobile phones, Bluetooth headphones/headsets, pagers, watches with alarms, and other electronic devices, and ensure that no sound is emitted from these devices during the examination. Deactivate the alarm function before switching off the phone.

12. You are not allowed to take photographs, audio-recording or video-recording inside the examination venue. Any photographs or recordings taken and their associated equipment would be taken away for further inspection and the photographs and/or recordings would be erased by the chief invigilator.

13. About examination venue environment

- (a) If there are any undesirable conditions at the examination venue, you should inform an invigilator of the same immediately. Since it is difficult to collect circumstantial evidence after the examination, no consideration will be given to candidates who do not report unsatisfactory conditions at the venue in writing.

- (b) In general, no consideration will be given to candidates' claims of performance being affected by any of the following factors:

(i) Normal background noise at examination venues – You should not expect complete silence in the examination venue as there may be normal background noise coming from outside vehicles, normal school activities, school bells, coughing and sniffing of neighbouring candidates, candidates entering and leaving the examination venue etc. during an examination.

(ii) Unsuitable room temperature – Examinations take place at various times throughout the year, and room temperatures of various examination venues may differ and the PEAK Exam Centre may not be able to adjust the examination venue temperature to suit each and every individual's requirements.

(iii) Change of seat – If the reported undesirable condition at the examination venue may be rectified or improved by a seat change, the chief invigilator may, upon your request, arrange a seat change if the need is genuine and a spare seat is available at the venue. In any case, no extra examination time will be given with regard to any change of seat.

(iv) Computer or system breakdown – If there is a technical breakdown caused by whatever reason during the examination, the PEAK Exam Centre will try to fix the problems but delay may inevitably arise. If the technical problems cannot be fixed within reasonable time, the PEAK Exam Centre will arrange the candidates concerned to take a rescheduled examination as soon as possible. Candidates cannot object to the arrangements and any requests for cancellation and/or refunds will not be entertained. The PEAK Exam Centre will not be liable for the candidates' losses resulting from the system breakdowns.

14. Checking for electronic devices

You may be required to be scanned by electronic detection scanning devices (for example, hand-held metal detectors/wands) at such time and place, and in particular before/after going to the toilet, as may be decided by an invigilator. Failure to comply with such requirement will result in dismissal from the examination venue, and your examination fees will not be refunded.

15. Smoking or eating is not allowed in the examination venue. Candidates who smoke or eat during an examination may be asked to leave the examination venue immediately.
16. You are advised to bring a watch to time the examination as not all examination venues have a clock. Watches with functions/applications other than those of timekeeping are not permitted. The examination time is accordance with the time announced by the chief invigilator.
17. Parking facilities will not be available in the examination venue.

C. During the Examination

1. Place your identification document on the top right-hand corner of your desk and leave it there throughout the examination to facilitate verification of your identity by the invigilator. The identification document presented must be consistent with the identification document stated in the Entry Form. Candidates must be clearly identifiable from their identification document. Where the invigilator is of the view that the photograph on the identification document does not resemble the candidate or has doubts about the validity or authenticity of the documentation, the candidate in question will be required to provide further information and assistance to the invigilator and/or chief invigilator for the verification of his/her identity. The PEAK Exam Centre and/or the EAA have the right to conduct an investigation against the candidate(s) involved and withhold releasing his/her score or cancel his/her score (if already released) pending completion of the investigation. Candidates should be cooperative. The EAA has the right to disqualify the candidate if he/she is not cooperative in the investigation. If you do not have your Admission Form, report to an invigilator immediately. Keep the Admission Form after the examination for record purposes.
2. Read carefully and carry out the instructions displayed on the screen.
3. You should follow the instructions from the chief invigilator and input the required information for logging in the examination system by yourself. The chief invigilator will announce the start of the examination after the login is completed (normally within one minute). Invigilators will not input the information for candidates.
4. You can browse the Table of Stamp Duty Rates and Appendices to Part II of examination questions on screen. A printout of the Table of Stamp Duty Rates and Appendices to Part II of examination questions ("Supplementary Information Book") is also distributed to you at the same time.
5. When you receive your Supplementary Information Book, check that you have been given the correct paper and language version of the Supplementary Information Book. However, do not turn over the pages of the Supplementary Information Book or start working until you are instructed to do so. You will only be provided with the Supplementary Information Book in the language opted by you in the Entry Form.
6. You should do rough work on Supplementary Information Book only. Do not write anything on the Admission Form. If you write anything on the materials other than Supplementary Information Book, it will be considered as copying or retaining any information relating to examination questions and/or answers.

7. Select your answers on the screen by using the mouse. After you have completed the examination, raise your hand and inform the invigilator before submitting your answers. The invigilator will instruct you on how to submit your answers. Provisional results will then be shown on the screen. For candidates who received mark penalty for breach of examination regulation, their marks will not be shown on the screen.
8. Invigilators will record your provisional result for your confirmation and signature. All results shown on screen are for reference only. They are subject to the result printed on the result slip sent to candidates by post. The result printed on the result slip is final and conclusive.
9. You are advised to familiarize with the examination format and operations. A “System Demonstration – Online Tutorial” is available on the website of the PEAK Exam Centre at www.vtc.edu.hk/cpdc. 10. The Supplementary Information Book must be given up at the end of the examination. No examination stationery of any description may be removed from the examination venue by a candidate.

12. You should raise your hand to seek the invigilator’s assistance if you encounter any problems during the examination.
13. If you have any queries about the contents of an examination question or you believe that there is an error in an examination question, you may at the end of the examination ask the invigilator to give you a “Candidate’s Note”. You may write your query down in the note and hand it to the invigilator before you leave the examination venue.
14. Keep quiet when leaving the examination venue early as other candidates may still be working for the examination.

D. End of Examination
