
INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES (PAPER-BASED EXAMINATION)

The following instructions must be carefully noted and observed in every detail.

A. Check your Admission Form

1. Check carefully that the information printed on your Admission Form, i.e. name (English and Chinese), Hong Kong Identity Card number/Passport number and question language, corresponds with that in the Entry Form. If you discover a discrepancy, make a written request to the PEAK Examination Centre, Vocational Training Council (“PEAK Exam Centre”) for amendment at least 1 week before the examination.
2. Take note of all details provided in your Admission Form before the examination to avoid missing the examination, or attending on the wrong date, at the wrong time, or at the wrong examination venue.

Note: Fees paid are not refundable or transferable save in exceptional circumstances and subject to the approval of the Estate Agents Authority (“EAA”).

B. General Instructions

1. Before the examination, ensure that you know the location of the examination venue. You may contact the PEAK Exam Centre (Tel. No.: 2919 1467 / 2919 1468 / 2919 1478) to enquire about the location of the examination venue. You must take the examination at the examination venue specified on your Admission Form. Candidates who go to the examination venue other than the one stated on the Admission Form may not be allowed to take the examination. Even if you are admitted to take the examination, 5 marks will be deducted.
2. Arrive at the examination venue 15 minutes before the commencement of the examination. The examination time is specified on your Admission Form.
3. Bring your original Admission Form and your original and valid Hong Kong Identity Card/Passport (“identification document”) to the examination venue. The chief invigilator may refuse to admit a candidate who cannot show his/her Admission Form and his/her identification document. Candidates who register online should print their Admission Forms on a blank A4-sized white paper and bring it to the examination.
4. No writing instruments will be provided in the examination venue. Candidates should bring the following items for the examination:

- H.B. pencils
 - a soft rubber
 - a pencil sharpener
5. You are not allowed to use any dictionary (including the “Glossary of Terms for the Estate Agency Industry” issued by the EAA) during the examination.
 6. Do not place any kind of bag on your desk.
 7. When you are admitted to the examination venue, occupy the seat assigned to you in accordance with the seating plan displayed in the examination venue.
 8. (a) If you arrive late but not more than 45 minutes after the designated start time of the examination as stated in the Admission Form, you will be admitted to the examination venue but no extra time will be given to you.
(b) You will not be admitted to the examination venue 45 minutes after the designated start time of the examination, unless the chief invigilator determines otherwise.
(c) Even if you are admitted to the examination venue 45 minutes after the designated start time of the examination, you will be disqualified from the examination and no mark for the examination will be given to you unless you satisfy the EAA that there are very exceptional circumstances justifying your lateness.
(d) You may not leave the examination venue during the first 90 minutes or during the last 30 minutes of the examination. If you wish to leave the examination venue during the permitted time, tie up your question book and answer sheet, making sure that you have completed all the necessary details on our answer sheet and question book cover. Then raise your hand to summon an invigilator. You may leave the examination venue with the approval of the invigilator.

9. Handling of Personal Belongings/Unauthorised Articles

You must put all your personal belongings in a bag. The bag must be properly closed and small enough to be placed under the chair or in an area assigned by the chief invigilator/invigilators before the examination begins. However, the PEAK Exam Centre will not be responsible for safekeeping your belongings. You will not be allowed to take out any materials from your bag during the examination. If unauthorised articles such as books, dictionaries, notes, papers or any kinds of electronic devices (e.g. calculators, tablets, PDA, mobile phones, Bluetooth headphones/headsets, pagers, MP3 players, camera devices/equipment, electronic dictionaries, scanner pens, databank watches, smart watches with mobile applications installed or wireless technologies supported and other electronic devices which can store and/or display texts) are found on/in your desk, on your body or in your pockets during the examination, you may be disqualified from the examination. If you bring a pencil box into the examination venue, you must place the contents on your desk and put the empty box under the chair.

10. Switch off all mobile phones, Bluetooth headphones/headsets, pagers, watches with alarms, and other electronic devices, and ensure that no sound is emitted from these devices during the examination. Deactivate the alarm function before switching off the phone.

11. You are not allowed to take photographs, audio-recording or video-recording inside the examination venue. Any photographs or recordings taken and their associated equipment would be taken away for further inspection and the photographs and/or recordings would be erased by the chief invigilator.

12. About examination venue environment

(a) If there are any undesirable conditions at the examination venue, you should inform an invigilator of the same immediately. Since it is difficult to collect circumstantial evidence after the examination, no consideration will be given to candidates who do not report unsatisfactory conditions at the venue in writing.

(b) In general, no consideration will be given to candidates' claims of performance being affected by any of the following factors:

(i) Normal background noise at examination venues – You should not expect complete silence in the examination venue as there may be normal background noise coming from outside vehicles, normal school activities, school bells, coughing and sniffing of neighbouring candidates, candidates entering and leaving the examination venue etc. during an examination.

(ii) Unsuitable room temperature – Examinations take place at various times throughout the year, and room temperatures of various examination venues may differ and the PEAK Exam Centre may not be able to adjust the examination venue temperature to suit each and every individual's requirements.

(iii) Change of seat – If the reported undesirable condition at the examination venue may be rectified or improved by a seat change, the chief invigilator may, upon your request, arrange a seat change if the need is genuine and a spare seat is available at the venue. In any case, no extra examination time will be given with regard to any change of seat.

13. Checking for electronic devices

You may be required to be scanned by electronic detection scanning devices (for example, hand-held metal detectors/wands) at such time and place, and in particular before/after going to the toilet, as may be decided by an invigilator. Failure to comply with such requirement will result in dismissal from the examination venue, and your examination fees will not be refunded.

14. Smoking or eating is not allowed in the examination venue. Candidates who smoke or eat during an examination may be asked to leave the examination venue immediately.

15. You are advised to bring a watch to time the examination as not all examination venues have a clock. Watches with functions/applications other than those of timekeeping are not permitted. The examination time is accordance with the time announced by the chief invigilator.

16. Parking facilities will not be available in the examination venue.

C. During the Examination

1. Place your identification document on the top right-hand corner of your desk and leave it there throughout the examination to facilitate verification of your identity by the invigilator. The identification document presented must be consistent with the identification document stated in the Entry Form. Candidates must be clearly identifiable from their identification document. Where the invigilator is of the view that the photograph on the identification document does not resemble the candidate or has doubts about the validity or authenticity of the documentation, the candidate in question will be required to provide further information and assistance to the invigilator and/or chief invigilator for the verification of his/her identity. The PEAK Exam Centre and/or the EAA have the right to conduct an investigation against the candidate(s) involved and withhold releasing his/her score or cancel his/her score (if already released) pending completion of the investigation. Candidates should be cooperative. The EAA has the right to disqualify the candidate if he/she is not cooperative in the investigation. If you do not have your Admission Form, report to an invigilator immediately. Keep the Admission Form after the examination for record purposes.
2. Read carefully and carry out the instructions given on the question book and the multiple-choice answer sheet. Do not write your name on the question book or answer sheet.
3. Before the commencement of the examination, you will be instructed to complete the required information on the answer sheet. . Invigilators will not complete the information for candidates.
4. When you receive your question book, check that you have been given the correct paper and language version of the question book. However, do not turn over the pages of the question book or start working until you are instructed to do so. You will only be provided with the question book in the language opted by you in the Entry Form. A Table of Stamp Duty Rates will be provided in the question book.
5. You should do rough work on question paper only. Do not write anything on the Admission Form. If you write anything on the materials other than question paper and answer sheet (such as writing on the Admission Form), it will be considered as copying or retaining any information relating to examination questions and/or answers.
6. Answer sheets will be marked by an optical mark reader. When filling in the boxes on the answer sheet, aim to fill in the box completely by a blunt HB pencil. Fill one box for each question. No marks will be given if two or more boxes are filled for the same question. Rub out completely any boxes you wish to change by using a good quality soft rubber and not the one on the end of your pencil. Answers written in the question book will not be marked.
7. Before the commencement of the examination, you will be instructed to complete the following on the answer sheet:

(a) Question Book Version*	(b) Question Language*	(c) Qualifying Exam*
(d) Candidate No.*	(e) Date of Examination	(f) Examination Number
(g) Venue Number	(h) Seat Number	(i) Signature of Candidate

You may copy the relevant information from your Admission Form and the question book cover.

* Fill the boxes with an HB pencil. Write your candidate number and seat number in the spaces provided on the question book cover.

8. The answer sheet and question book must be given up at the end of the examination. No examination stationery of any description may be removed from the examination venue by a candidate.
9. If you need to go to the toilet, raise your hand. Wait for the invigilator to escort you to the toilet. Your IN/OUT time will be recorded. No extra time will be given to make up for the time lost. If you take any material out of the examination venue or bring any material back with you, you may be disqualified.
10. You should raise your hand to seek the invigilator's assistance if you encounter any problems during the examination.
11. If you have any queries about the contents of an examination question or you believe that there is an error in an examination question, you may at the end of the examination ask the invigilator to give you a “Candidate’s Note”. You may write your query down in the note and hand it to the invigilator before you leave the examination venue.

12. Keep quiet when leaving the examination venue early as other candidates may still be working for the examination.

D. End of Examination

All question books and answer sheets will be collected by the invigilators after the end of the examination. No material distributed to you can be taken out of the examination venue at any time during or after the examination.

1. When the chief invigilator announces time is up, immediately stop writing and place your pencil/any stationeries down. Remain seated and silent while the invigilators are collecting your materials. Wait until the chief invigilator has checked and counted all the question books, answer sheets and other examination materials. When all the materials have been collected, the chief invigilator will announce your dismissal.
2. You may be disqualified if you do not follow the instructions given by the chief invigilator.
3. You may be asked to complete and sign on a “Candidate’s Note” for follow up by the PEAK Exam Centre and/or the EAA if you are suspected to have committed a breach of any of the instructions herein.

E. Breach of Examination Regulations

You are warned that any of the following acts may lead to prosecution and/or refusal of permission to sit for examination for a period reasonably determined by the EAA and/or disqualification from the examination and/or deduction of marks:

1. Obtaining knowledge of contents of question books prior to the examination.
2. Cheating or attempting to cheat or conducting yourself in such a manner which can reasonably be construed as cheating or attempting to cheat.
3. Copying from notes, books, electronic devices or any other thing brought into the examination venue or from the work of other candidates.
4. Possession of unauthorised material on/in the examination desk, on your body or in your pockets. Any such acts will be considered sufficient grounds for a charge of attempting to cheat and will lead to disqualification.
5. Copying or retaining any information relating to examination questions and/or answers.
6. Communicating or attempting to communicate in any form with persons inside or outside the examination venue during the examination.
7. Operating any mobile communication device in the examination venue. If you speak or communicate on or use any mobile communication device or electronic device during an examination, you may be asked to leave the examination venue immediately and will not be allowed to continue with the examination.
8. Taking photographs, audio-recording or video-recording inside the examination venue.
9. Allowing mobile phones, pagers, watches or other devices to emit sound during an examination. Two marks will be deducted for an initial breach. Heavier sanction(s) will be imposed for further breach(es).
10. Starting to read and/or work on the question book before being instructed to do so or continuing to work on your answer sheet including using an eraser or filling in information, etc. after being told to stop working at the end of the examination. A minimum of 2 marks will be deducted for such a breach.
11. Attempting to take away from the examination venue any examination stationery such as the question book and/or answer sheet, refusing to return the question book and/or answer sheet or taking examination questions out of the examination venue.
12. Removing or tearing off any sheets from the question book.
13. Impersonating or attempting to impersonate or permitting such act in the examination.
14. Doing anything which causes disturbance to other candidates or disruption to the examination.
15. Failing to follow the requirements under the “Instructions to Candidates” or the instructions of the chief invigilator or an invigilator during the examination.

16. Leaving, or attempting to leave the examination venue without permission or during the first 90 minutes of the examination or within 30 minutes before the end of the examination.

F. Publication of Examination Results

1. Result Slips will be sent to you by surface post by the PEAK Exam Centre 14 working days after the examination.
2. You can check your examination result (if you have agreed to the posting of your examination result online) on the website (www.vtc.edu.hk/cpdc) of the PEAK Exam Centre 14 working days after the examination. The results will be posted on the website for 1 month. The examination result (namely, Pass with Commendation/Pass/Fail/Absent/Disqualified) and the marks obtained in Parts I and II of the examination paper will be shown on the PEAK Exam Centre website. For candidates who received mark penalty for breach of examination regulation, their marks will only be shown on their Result Slips. No mark will be given for “Absent” and “Disqualified” candidates. All results posted on the PEAK Exam Centre website are for reference only. They are subject to the results printed on the Result Slips sent to candidates by post. The result printed on the Result Slip is final and conclusive.
3. There is no result checking services by telephone/email/in person at the PEAK Exam Centre or the EAA.

G. Bad Weather/Unexpected Event Arrangements

1. If the Pre-No. 8 Special Announcement, the typhoon signal No. 8 or above or the black rainstorm warning signal is issued and/or in force at or after 6:15 a.m. but before 11:00 a.m., examinations between 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon will be cancelled.
2. If the Pre-No. 8 Special Announcement, the typhoon signal No. 8 or above or the black rainstorm warning signal is issued and/or in force at or after 11:00 a.m. but before 4:00 p.m., examinations between 12:00 noon to 6:00 p.m. will be cancelled.
3. If the Pre-No. 8 Special Announcement, the typhoon signal No. 8 or above or the black rainstorm warning signal is issued and/or in force at or after 4:00 p.m., examinations between 6:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. will be cancelled.
4. The EAA or the PEAK Exam Centre may also cancel any examination due to bad weather, an act of God, labour strike, natural disaster, governmental action or intervention, riot, or any other cause or circumstances not reasonably foreseeable and beyond the reasonable control of the EAA or the PEAK Exam Centre (collectively, “Unexpected Event”).
5. However, once the examination has commenced, it will continue for the full allotted time even if the Pre-No. 8 Special Announcement, the typhoon signal No. 8 or above or the black rainstorm warning signal is issued and/or in force, or an Unexpected Event in the opinion of the EAA has occurred, unless physical conditions in the examination venue are considered dangerous by the chief invigilator.
6. Candidates are advised to visit the website of the PEAK Exam Centre (www.vtc.edu.hk/cpdc) for any special announcements concerning cancellation and/or postponement of examinations.
7. In case of bad weather/Unexpected Event and that the examination has to be cancelled, the PEAK Exam Centre or the EAA may, but is not obliged to, arrange for the candidates to take a re-scheduled examination. Candidates shall not object to the arrangements, and any requests for refunds or transfer of examination fee to another examination will not be entertained save in very exceptional circumstances supported by evidence and documents and subject to the approval of the EAA. Where an application for refund is approved, candidates will only be refunded the examination fee after deduction of the service fee charged per candidate by the PEAK Exam Centre or 50% of the examination fee, whichever is the lower.
8. In the event that the PEAK Exam Centre is closed on the day of publication of examination results due to bad weather/Unexpected Event, the examination results will be published on the next working day.

H. Closure of Certain Examination Venue(s) due to an Unexpected Event

1. In case certain examination venue(s) of a qualifying examination is/are closed due to an Unexpected Event but the same qualifying examination at other venue(s) will proceed as scheduled, the PEAK Exam Centre will notify affected candidates assigned to the closed venue(s) that their examination will be cancelled via mobile phone text message (SMS) as soon as practicable. As the venue provider may not give sufficient notice to the PEAK Exam Centre or the EAA before deciding to close their venue, candidates are advised to check the website of the PEAK Exam Centre (www.vtc.edu.hk/cpdc) for relevant announcement 2 hours before the start of the examination to ensure that their assigned venue(s) will still be opened for the examination.
2. In case of closure of certain examination venue(s) due to an Unexpected Event and the examination to be held at such venue(s) has to be cancelled, the PEAK Exam Centre or the EAA may, but is not obliged to, arrange for the affected candidates assigned to the closed venue(s) to take a re-scheduled examination. Candidates shall not object to the arrangements, and any requests for refunds or transfer of examination fee to another examination will not be entertained save in very exceptional circumstances supported by evidence and documents and subject to the approval of the EAA. Where an application for refund is approved, candidates will only be refunded the examination fee after deduction of the service fee charged per candidate by the PEAK Exam Centre or 50% of the examination fee, whichever is the lower.
3. Candidates shall accept that neither the EAA nor the PEAK Exam Centre will be responsible for closure of certain examination venue(s) due to an Unexpected Event.

WARNING: IMPERSONATION AT AN EXAMINATION MAY LEAD TO DISQUALIFICATION FROM THE EXAMINATION AND/OR PROSECUTION FOR CRIMINAL OFFENCE(S).
