

National estate agents qualifying examination 2006
open for application

(29 June 2006) Estate agency practitioners in Hong Kong may now apply for the national estate agents qualifying examination 2006 (全國房地產經紀人執業資格考試) through the Estate Agents Authority (EAA).

The examination will take place on 14 and 15 October. According to the arrangement between the Personnel Department (廣東省人事廳) and the Construction Department (廣東省建設廳) of the Guangdong Provincial People's Government and EAA, licensed estate agents and salespersons in the Hong Kong SAR, having fulfilled the relevant application requirements, may apply for the national estate agents qualifying examination 2006 to be held in Guangzhou. Those who pass the examination will receive a national certificate of practice as an estate agent (房地產經紀人執業資格證書) issued by the Personnel Department of Guangdong Province.

Applicants must first apply on-line at www.gdkszx.com.cn before 5:00pm on 21 July. Applicants are then required to bring all necessary documents and apply in person at EAA (48/F, Hopewell Centre, 183 Queen's Road East, Wanchai, Hong Kong) on or before 26 July. Please visit the EAA website www.eaa.org.hk for further details on the examination and the relevant documents required for the application (in Chinese only).

Applicants may contact EAA on 2598 9550 for enquiries on the application procedures.

– End –