

EAA releases *Inquiry Hearing Cases – A Selection III

(14 April 2008) The Estate Agents Authority (EAA) has published Inquiry Hearing Cases – A Selection III.

The new collection contains 20 inquiry hearing cases heard in the past three years. For practitioners' easy reference, similar cases have been grouped together in this collection.

Chairman of EAA Disciplinary Committee Mr Ma Ho-fai said, "Estate agents must conduct their business in a law-abiding manner. It has always been EAA's mission to raise the standards of the trade and enhance the quality of their service for the protection of consumers."

Mr Ma added, "The inquiry hearing cases in the collections are all very representative. Publishing them will enhance practitioners' understanding of relevant laws and promote compliance."

EAA published Inquiry Hearing Cases – A Selection and Inquiry Hearing Cases – A Selection II in 2002 and 2006 respectively. Both publications have been well received by the trade.

Each licensed estate agent or practitioner can obtain a free copy of Inquiry Hearing Cases – A Selection III at the EAA's office or when they attend training courses organised by EAA.

Inquiry Hearing Cases – A Selection III has also been uploaded onto the EAA website www.eaa.org.hk/publications/EAA\_IHC.pdf.
