

Integrity Management Programme for estate agents

The EAA and the ICAC have jointly launched a three-year integrity management programme to strengthen professional ethics of estate agency managers and frontline staff. The launching ceremony of the programme was held on 2 March 2011. The press release about the ceremony and the programme is available at the ICAC website:

http://www.icac.org.hk/en/news_and_events/pr2/index_uid_1142.html