

The EAA Board Appoints the Chairpersons of Standing Committees

(22 November 2022) The Board of the Estate Agents Authority (“EAA”) held its meeting today and appointed the chairpersons of its five standing committees to oversee the various aspects of the EAA work.

The EAA Board is the highest decision-making body of the EAA. It sets overall strategic direction and policies of the EAA, and supervises and monitors the performance of the EAA Administration. The EAA Board currently has 20 members including its Chairman Mr Simon SIU Chak-yu, BBS, JP, Vice-chairman Ms Jane Curzon LO, BBS, JP and 18 ordinary members, all appointed by the Chief Executive of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. Board members come from varied backgrounds with diverse knowledge, experience and expertise, including the sectors of real estate agency, property development, business, legal, surveying, finance, accounting professions, academia and etc. The full list of the EAA Board members is published on the EAA’s website.

The chairpersons of the standing committees and their corresponding key area of work are as follows:

Standing committee	Key area of work	Chairperson
Strategic Development & Management Committee	Responsible for mapping the strategic development of the EAA, examines strategic issues of long-term significance	Mr Simon SIU Chak-yu, BBS, JP
Disciplinary Committee	Receives and inquires into complaints lodged against licensed estate agents, metes out disciplinary sanctions to non-compliant licensees	Mr CHOW Wai-shun
Licensing Committee	Oversees licensing matters, considers and recommends licensing requirements for estate	Professor Eddie HUI Chi-man, agents, and approves or refuses applications for licences brought before it	MH, JP

Practice and Examination Committee	Oversees practice and examination matters, formulates practice circulars and guidelines on various aspects of estate agency work	Ms Jane Curzon LO, BBS, JP
Professional Development Committee	Formulates and oversees the implementation of the Continuing Professional Development Scheme with a view to raising the competence of licensees	Ms Meena DATWANI

The EAA Board meeting today also discussed and endorsed other administrative matters and received work progress reports from the Administration.

- End -