

EAA's annual report won two international awards

(4 September 2023) The Estate Agents Authority (“EAA”) is pleased to announce that the EAA’s annual report 2021/22 has recently won two international awards.

As the year 2022 marked the 25th anniversary of the EAA’s establishment, the awards are of special significance to the EAA. One of the awards is the Gold Award in the Government Category of “2022 Vision Awards” organised by the League of American Communications Professionals LLC (LACP). The award recognises excellence in the production of annual reports on a global scale.

The other award that the EAA’s annual report 2021/22 has been granted is the Gold Award in the “2023 ARC Awards” in the category of Cover Photo/Design of Government Agencies & Offices. It is the third time that the EAA’s annual reports received recognition from the ARC Award.

The Chief Executive Officer of the EAA, Ms Ruby HON, said, “Through the concerted efforts of the EAA’s staff, the EAA is honoured to have won these two internationally recognized awards. The two awards add to the significance of the important achievements of the EAA as it celebrated its silver jubilee.”

All along, the EAA values its annual report production as annual reports carry a significant amount of information and transparency that enables the public and stakeholders to understand the EAA’s work, while garnering their trust and support at the same time. Each year, the EAA’s annual report will be furnished to the Secretary for Housing and laid before the Legislative Council.

地產代理監管局
ESTATE AGENTS AUTHORITY

新聞稿
Press Release

Acting as a major communication channel to convey the EAA's beliefs, mission and work to the public, the EAA is constantly striving for improvement in the quality, contents and design of its annual reports. The winning annual report is available at the EAA's website: www.eaa.org.hk

The award winning EAA's annual report 2021/22

– End –