

EAA Supports Government's Decisions on Wang Fuk Court
Fire Follow-up Actions -
Building Consensus to Drive Systemic Reform

(29 October 2026) Regarding the report of the Independent Committee, matters of accountability, and reform measures announced by the HKSAR Government today in relation to the Tai Po Wang Fuk Court fire, the Estate Agents Authority (“EAA”) expresses its full support for the Government’s relevant decisions.

The EAA opines that the HKSAR Government’s decisions to pursue criminal liability, administrative accountability, and political responsibility in accordance with the law fully demonstrate its governance commitment, people-oriented approach, and strict adherence to the rule of law. These actions serve as a direct and positive response to the public concerns.

The EAA states that it fully supports the series of concrete reform measures introduced by the HKSAR Government. These reform measures aim to specifically rectify the institutional loopholes and gaps in the past, and will serve as an opportunity to strengthen cooperation and capabilities among various law enforcement agencies. The EAA believes that the progressive and robust implementation of these measures will eradicate corruption and rebuild a healthy property repair and maintenance ecosystem.

The EAA also hopes that all sectors of Hong Kong will fully assist the HKSAR Government in rolling out these reform measures by actively putting forward constructive recommendations. Together, we can eradicate deep-rooted problems to deepen, reform the governance
