Note: Fees paid are not refundable or transferable save in exceptional circumstances and subject to the approval of the EAA.

B. Instructions regarding Examination Venue Admission

1. You must take the examination at the examination venue specified on your Admission Form. Candidates who go to an examination venue other than the one stated on their Admission Form may not be allowed to take the examination. 3. The chief invigilator may refuse to admit a candidate who cannot show his/her Admission Form and his/her identification document. Even if you are admitted to take the examination and you can produce your original and valid identification document within the next working day after the examination, 5 marks will be deducted. You will be disqualified if you fail to produce your original and valid identification document to verify your identity within the next working day after the examination. If you registered online, please print your Admission Form on blank A4-sized white paper and bring it to the examination.
4. Parking facilities will not be available at the examination venue.

- (c) Even if you are admitted to the examination venue 45 minutes after the designated start time of the examination, you will be disqualified from the examination and no mark for the examination will be given to you unless you satisfy the EAA that there are very exceptional circumstances justifying your lateness.

C. Instructions at the Examination Venue

You must put all your personal belongings in a bag. The bag must be properly closed and small enough to be placed under the chair or in an area assigned by the chief invigilator/invigilators before the examination begins. However, the PEAK Exam Centre will not be responsible for safekeeping your belongings. If you bring a pencil box into the examination venue, you must place the contents on your desk and put the empty box under the chair. You will not be allowed to take out any articles from your bag during the examination. If you are found to possess any unauthorised articles including but not limited to books, dictionaries, notes, papers, electronic devices, etc. that are not placed according to examination rules during the examination, you may be disqualified from the examination. 12. You are not allowed to take photographs, audio-recording or video-recording inside the examination venue. Any photographs or recordings taken and their associated equipment would be taken away for further inspection and the photographs and/or recordings will be erased by the chief invigilator.
13. Environment of the Examination Venue
 - (a) If there are any undesirable conditions at the examination venue, you should inform an invigilator of the same immediately. Since it is difficult to collect circumstantial evidence after the examination, no consideration will be given to candidates who do not report unsatisfactory conditions at the venue in writing.
 - (b) In general, no consideration will be given to candidates' claims of performance being affected by any of the following factors:
 - (i) Normal background noise at examination venues – You should not expect complete silence at the examination venue as there may be normal background noise coming from outside vehicles, normal school activities, school bells, coughing and sniffing of neighbouring candidates, candidates entering and leaving the examination venue etc. during an examination.
 - (ii) Unsuitable room temperature – Examinations take place at various times throughout the year, and room temperatures of various examination venues may differ and the PEAK Exam Centre may not be able to adjust the examination venue temperature to suit each and every individual's requirements.
 - (iii) Change of seat – If the reported undesirable condition at the examination venue may be rectified or improved by a seat change, the chief invigilator may, upon your request, arrange a seat change if the need is genuine and a spare seat is available at the venue. In any case, no extra examination time will be given with regard to any change of seat.
14. Checking for electronic devices

You may be required to be scanned by electronic detection scanning devices (for example, hand-held metal detectors/wands) at such time and place, and in particular before/after going to the toilet, as may be decided by an invigilator. Failure to comply with such requirement will result in dismissal from the examination venue, and your examination fees will not be refunded.
15. Smoking or eating is not allowed at the examination venue. Candidates who smoke or eat during an examination may be asked to leave the examination venue immediately.

16. You are advised to bring a watch to time the examination as not all examination venues have a clock. Watches with functions/applications other than those of timekeeping are not permitted. The examination time is in accordance with the time announced by the chief invigilator.

D. Instructions during the Examination

1. Place your original identification document on the top right-hand corner of your desk to facilitate verification of your identity by the invigilator. The identification document presented must be consistent with the identification document stated in the Entry Form. Candidates must be clearly identifiable from their identification document. Where the invigilator is of the view that the photograph on the identification document does not resemble the candidate or has doubts about the validity or authenticity of the documentation, the candidate in question will be required to provide further information and assistance to the invigilator and/or chief invigilator for the verification of his/her identity. The PEAK Exam Centre and/or the EAA have the right to conduct an investigation against the candidate(s) involved and withhold releasing his/her score or cancel his/her score (if already released) pending completion of the investigation. Candidates should be cooperative. The EAA has the right to disqualify the candidate if he/she is not cooperative in the investigation. If you do not have your Admission Form during the examination, report to an invigilator immediately. Keep the Admission Form after the examination for record purposes.
2. Read carefully and carry out the instructions given on the question book and the multiple-choice answer sheet. Do not write your name on the question book or answer sheet.
3. When you receive your question book, check that you have been given the correct paper and language version of the question book. However, do not turn over the pages of the question book or start working until you are instructed to do so. You will only be provided with the question book in the language opted by you in the Entry Form. A Table of Stamp Duty Rates will be provided in the question book.
4. You should do rough work in your question book only. Do not write anything on the Admission Form. If you write anything on the materials other than the question book and answer sheet (such as writing on the Admission Form), it will be considered as copying or retaining information relating to the examination questions and/or answers.
5. Answer sheets will be marked by an optical mark reader. When filling in the boxes on the answer sheet, aim to fill in the box completely by a blunt HB pencil. Fill one box for each question. No marks will be given if two or more boxes are filled for the same question. Rub out completely any boxes you wish to change by using a good quality soft eraser and not the one on the end of your pencil. Answers written in the question book will not be marked.
6. If you need to go to the toilet, you must raise your hand first. Wait for the invigilator to escort you to the toilet. Your IN/OUT time will be recorded. No extra time will be given to make up for the time lost. If you take any unauthorised articles and/or examination materials out of the examination venue or bring any unauthorised articles back with you, you may be disqualified.
7. You should raise your hand to seek the invigilator's assistance if you encounter any problems during the examination.
8. If you have any queries about the contents of an examination question or you believe that there is an error in an examination question, you may at the end of the examination ask the invigilator to give you a “Candidate’s Note”. You may write your query down in the note and hand it to the invigilator before you leave the examination venue.

9. Keep quiet when leaving the examination venue early as other candidates may still be working on the examination.

E. Instructions at the end of the Examination

All question books and answer sheets will be collected by the invigilators after the end of the examination. No material distributed to you can be taken out of the examination venue at any time during or after the examination.

1. When the chief invigilator announces that the time is up, immediately stop working on your answer sheet and place your pencil/any stationaries down. Remain seated and silent while the invigilators are collecting your materials. Wait until the chief invigilator has checked and counted all the question books, answer sheets and other examination materials. When all the materials have been collected, the chief invigilator will announce your dismissal.
2. You must not continue to work on your answer sheet after being told to stop at the end of the examination. Otherwise, 3 marks will be deducted.
3. The answer sheet and question book must be submitted at the end of the examination.
4. You may be disqualified if you do not follow the instructions given by the chief invigilator or an invigilator.
5. You may be asked to complete and sign on a “Candidate’s Note” for follow up by the PEAK Exam Centre and/or the EAA if you are suspected to have committed a breach of any of the instructions herein.
