

EAA appoints Mrs Rosanna Ure as new CEO

(4 August 2009) The Estate Agents Authority (EAA) today announced the appointment of Mrs Rosanna Ure as Chief Executive Officer with effect from 10 August 2009.

Mrs Ure was selected by a recruitment panel formed under the EAA Board after an open recruitment exercise which attracted 75 applications. Eight candidates were shortlisted for interview and the panel found Mrs Ure the most suitable candidate.

Before leaving the civil service, Mrs Ure was Deputy Secretary for the Civil Service. She had also previously served as Commissioner for Narcotics, Director of the Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office in Canada and Director of Community Relations for the Independent Commission Against Corruption.
